

Project Management when it comes to Heritage Construction

by Rousha Rudgar

11th August, 2014

IITRAM is welcoming the third batch of students in the academic year 2015 – 2016 with throbbing events during their Foundation Program. On 11th August, expert of Heritage Management from University of Tehran, Iran – Ms Rousha Rudgar – talked on “Project Management when it comes to Heritage Construction” between 9.30 am to 11.30 am. The two hours of knowledge sharing was extremely fruitful to the young aspirants of the institute. Students interacted with Ms Rudgar with variety of questions during and after the session as well. The expert shared a wide knowledge of Heritage sites and its different aspects. The session was very interactive and resourceful.

