

Group Discussion Competition

20th September 2014

Under the course English Communication HS-101, IITRAM organizes a Group Discussion Competition for all the Semester I students. This academic year witnessed an overwhelming response for the same on 20th September, Saturday, from 9.30 am onwards. To evaluate their communication skills, to improve their argument skills and presentation skills as well as to build up their confidence level, the GD competition was held with prior preparations and mock GDs. With approximate 120 students, GD began with variety of though provoking topics which were already declared beforehand. All the students had chosen their group according to topics into 5 sections. Each group then was divided into sub-groups for smooth functioning of the event. Two in-house jury members for each group were invited to judge the performance of the group as well as their individual qualities. Group A, consisting of 5 sub-groups, was judged by Dr. S. R. Joshi and Dr. Mohit Sharma while Group B by Dr. Shanti Prasanna and Dr. Ketan Badgujar. Dr. Kalpesh Hariya and Prof. Anil Kshatriya judged the Group C while Group D was analyzed by Dr. B.B. Soneji with Dr. Saumya Bajpai. The last Group E was analyzed and judged by Dr. Rammohan and Dr. Mahuya Bandyopadhyay. All the faculties judged the efforts of the students with utmost care and objectivity.

Semester III students had volunteered to anchor the event with responsibilities and enthusiasm. They had encouraged their juniors throughout from the declaration of the competition to the very end of the event. The whole event resulted into a grand success. The in-house judges were fascinated by the spirit the Semester I students showed and participated with. By 11.30 am, all the groups ended up with their participation in the competition.
