

Refund Policy ACPC/JoSAA:

New Admissions:

For all the students who are admitted through ACPC or JoSAA/CSAB follow rules for refund shall be applicable:

1. If any candidate withdraws the admission after the final round of ACPC/CSAB admission, he/she is eligible for the refund of only Institute caution money on submission of an application for withdrawal from the program. The tuition fees shall not be refunded.
2. Additional, the processing charges of Rs. 1000/- shall be deducted for all the candidates who apply for cancellation after final round of admission as per refundable rules of ACPC/CSAB.
3. If any candidate has reported, but not paid the fees, and wants to cancel the admission after final round of admission then he/she need to pay the tuition fees after which the cancellation letter shall be issued.

Students with ongoing program:

If any candidate wants to cancel the admission in between the program; he/she had to clear all the dues of pending fees and the cancellation is to be requested during first 15 days of semester beginning.

After 15 days of semester begins; the candidate has to pay full fees of that semester, and clear all the pending dues; only after that the cancelation shall be accepted and letter will be issued.