

INSTITUTE OF INFRASTRUCTURE TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH AND MANAGEMENT
REPORT ON DRAWING COMPETITION ON 30TH JANUARY, 2015

The GANDHI NIRVAN DIN turned out to be a vibrant and colorful Drawing Competition in the Open Air Theatre of IITRAM. With 37 participants from Semester II and IV, the event spread the message of a vision of 'Clean India'. The theme 'Gandhi and Cleanliness' was wonderfully portrayed with variety of ideas of patriotism and Gandhian views. A very famous artist-cum-faculty from C. N. Institute of Fine Arts, Ahmedabad, Mr. Manhar Kapadia was invited to judge the drawings who appreciated the creativity and efforts of young students. The whole campus was vigilant and vigorous with throbbing creativity and cleanliness drive. The drawings were displayed on the first floor foyer after the competition. Mr. Manhar Kapadia declared the three best drawings with

1st Rank to - Nisarga Malaviya (Sem II Civil)

2nd Rank to - Preetikumari Prasad (Sem II Electrical)

3rd Rank to - Prashant Kumar Singh (Sem II Civil)

The few other drawings were equally commendable to declare them as Consolation Winners. They are:

1. Chintan Chavda (Sem IV Civil)
2. Vaishali Iyengar (Sem II Electrical)
3. Rajesh Singh (Sem II Civil)
4. Shivani Patel (Sem II Civil)

The event was concluded with a warm note of being conscious about cleanliness around us and become responsible citizens of India.

CLEANLINESS IS NEXT TO THE GOVINDNESS
