No objection certificate from the employer must be produced in case of selection

Note :

The above candidates will have to give a short presentation (duration of 7 to 8 minutes) on a topic of their choice in their discipline depending upon their interest. The presentation will be followed by an interview. Dates of interview and respective time slots for the candidates will be communicated shortly.

The provisional selection of candidates will be based solely on the performance in the interview provided the other eligibility criteria mentioned in the advertisement are satisfied.
